24 Plaintiffs recently submitted their applications for leave to proceed in forma
25 pauperis as they borrowed funds to file their complaint in order to expedite their complaint 26 against Defendant due to statutes of limitations and due to various other Federal Complaints and

1 the birth of their child. Plaintiffs are therefore unable to fund further associated Court fees
2 including viewing their ECF documents and kindly ask the Court to waive the fees associated 3 with ECF filings and retrieval of documents once they are filed so that Plaintiffs may view the 4 docketed filings and proceed accordingly, as previously and already recognized by the District
5 Court of Nevada, the Southern District Court of Florida and the Massachusetts Appeals Court,
6 seen in Exhibits A, B, and D.

7 In association with Plaintiffs' request, Plaintiffs respectfully ask the Court to seal
8 Exhibit C filed with their applications as it contains Plaintiffs' confidential and personal financial 9 information.

11 Respectfully dated this 20th of August,
